LOCAL CHILLINGS AND COMMENT.

Martin has moved to the John Hens store here.

See Prof. Overbury's advertisement in another column.

Fresh meats constantly on hand at C. P. Westfield & Son.

Francis Corneille is building a new house on his lot near the bridge.

Twelve pieces cotton flannel are prices at Trade Palace.

See M. K. Kane.

I have a good buggy which I will sell cheap for cash or trade for horse.

See M. B. Vator.

Marriage licenses sold last night: C. P. Williams to Annie Huley, J. C. Taylor to Emma Haver.

When you come to town next Sunday, don't fail to call on Martin for your watches, clocks and jewelry.

Just opened, 14 pieces silk velvet for dress trimmings to be closed out at 35c per yard at Trade Palace.

See M. K. Kane.

Have we are still in the lead with 15 pieces of satin in the dollar and every thing else just as cheap.

C. P. Westfield & Son.

The Trade Palace can fit you in underwear from children on your old to the largest sizes both in ladies and gentlemen's wear.

To G. N. Gunther for fresh oysters, eel, chow, macaroni, corned beef, prunes, cut meats, fresh bread and cakes always on hand.

The reason the Trade Palace can sell goods cheaper than any other house in town, is because they buy directly for cash and sell strictly for cash.

See M. K. Kane.

Mr. B. H. Hovan, the popular leather merchant, is selling out his entire stock of general merchandise, treasury to quitting the mercantile business.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's Church will meet at 8 o'clock, p. m. We hope all the members will meet with us and bring as many new ones as they can. Only 10 cents for month with which we are trying to raise a little fund to furnish our church when completed.

A. Messers.

A big lot of new type of the latest designs just added to the Herald job shop for the execution of the printing. Give us a call.

There is not a vacant house in town. Why don't some enterprising business men build a few houses to rent? The demand for dwellings is increasing every day.

Uncle Warren Griffin will please accept our thanks for one of his fine pictures. The goods were given to him in town, and this one was selected from the lot of about fifty.

Excellent accommodations at the Matthews House as cheap as any hotel in town. Pleasant rooms—plenty to eat. Call once and you will find it. Next door to Bank of Hartford.

Mr. D. C. Row has purchased of H. H. Halliday & Co., Louisville, through their agent, P. O. Bryan, an elegant Fisher piano for his daughter Miss May. The instrument will be delivered at this week.

The Sick.
Miss Bertha Gibson has been quite sick. Her father for several days.

Mr. J. W. Marks of Louisville, formerly, R. J. Chapman, of the No Creek neighborhood, is dangerously ill of these two cities by the power of Mr. John Hawley, of Butler county, has a very severe case of erysipelas. The bones of his fingers are visible through the skin which is badly swollen and partially sloughed.

Business Men to Meet.
